 3 move to quash or respond to the subpoenas served on them by Which and Qualcomm,” see Dkt.
 4 No. 40

5 WHEREAS, since April 19, 2024, Which, Qualcomm, Apple and the Samsung Entities
 6 have continued to meet and confer in good faith;

7 WHEREAS, on May 9, 2024 Which agreed to Apple’s request to extend the deadline to 8 move to quash or respond to Which’s subpoena, so as to continue exploring whether a compromise
 9 can be reached that would obviate the need for a motion to quash, and, thereafter, Qualcomm and 10 the Samsung Entities also agreed that such extension would help all parties to continue exploring 11 whether such a compromise can be reached; and

12 WHEREAS, Which, Qualcomm, Apple, and the Samsung Entities wish to set June 5, 2024
 13 as the deadline for Apple and the Samsung Entities to move to quash or respond to Which’s and 14 Qualcomm’s subpoenas, thereby aligning all parties’ motion-to-quash deadlines in the 1782
 15 Proceedings and thereby allowing an opportunity for efficient briefing of any motions to quash.

16 NOW THEREFORE, WHICH, QUALCOMM, APPLE, AND THE SAMSUNG
 17 ENTITIES HEREBY STIPULATE, subject to the approval of this Court, that June 5, 2024 is the 18 deadline for Apple and the Samsung Entities to move to quash or respond to the subpoenas that 19 Which and Qualcomm served on Apple and the Samsung Entities in connection with the 1782 20 Proceedings. The timing and procedures set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 shall 21 otherwise apply.<sup>2 3</sup>

 23 <sup>2</sup> To clarify Which’s position in an ongoing dispute between Which and the Samsung Entities, 24 Which does not hold the view that the Court’s deadline for the motion to quash is obviated by 25 any non-party serving objections to the subpoena. The parties may seek a clarification from the 26 Court, if necessary.

27 <sup>3</sup> The Samsung Entities do not understand the Court’s orders or the parties’ stipulations (which 28 specifically include the phrase “[t]he timing and procedures set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 shall otherwise apply”) to require a motion to quash in order to preserve objections if a subpoena recipient timely served written objections under Rule 45, and view these stipulations as merely preserving the option of filing a motion to quash.

Respectfully submitted
